CELEBRATING GLOBAL DIVERSITY THROUGH FILM
LEVERAGING THE POWER OF EMERGENT INNOVATORS IN FILM, TELEVISION, AND DIGITAL MEDIA

In the summer of 1990 the pioneering rap group Boogie Down Productions released the LP Edu-tainment. On its title track, KRS-ONE urged content creators and consumers to be innovative in their communication. In the context of his prophetic call, Long Beach Indie, an international film festival and artist summit, announces its 1st annual "Digital Edutainment" Conference in Long Beach, California August 27-31, 2014.

Scholars, students, activists, and artists are invited to be part of the Digital Edutainment experience. We encourage submissions from established and emergent thought leaders representing every region of the world. Possible topics include but are not limited to: Global Hip Hop Culture, Advocacy & Social Justice, Race & Gender Representation, Spirituality & Religion, Sex & Sexuality.
